

What does being
Canadian mean to YOU?

What does it mean to be a Canadian citizen? What makes Canada and Canadians unique? Think about the things that distinguish us as Canadians: our heritage, history, geography, institutions, symbols, values, rights and responsibilities, and citizenship.

Design a poster, write a poem, song or story, that shows your feelings about being a Canadian!

Reflection on Canadian Identity Rubric

	Not Meeting Expectations	Minimally Meeting Expectations	Meeting Expectations	Exceeding Expectations
Knowledge and Understanding of Canadian Identity	- demonstrates limited knowledge and understanding of Canadian identity	- demonstrates some knowledge and understanding of Canadian identity	- demonstrates considerable knowledge and understanding of Canadian identity	- demonstrates thorough knowledge and understanding of Canadian identity
Neatness and Attention to Detail	- organizes ideas and information with limited effectiveness	- organizes ideas and information with some effectiveness	- organizes ideas and information with considerable effectiveness	- organizes ideas and information with a high degree of effectiveness
Clarity	- expresses ideas and information with limited effectiveness	- expresses ideas and information with some effectiveness	- expresses ideas and information with some effectiveness	- expresses ideas and information with a high degree of effectiveness
Independent Work Skills	- requires a great deal of teacher or peer assistance	- requires little teacher or peer assistance	- requires no teacher or peer assistance	- requires no teacher or peer assistance

Peer Assessment Checklist

	YES	NO
Did your peer demonstrate knowledge and understanding of what it means to be Canadian, and/or Canadian identity, in both their creative work and group discussion?
Did your peer complete their work in a neat fashion, paying attention to detail?
Did your peer present their work in a clear manner? In other words, did they explain their thoughts and ideas clearly, and were those ideas linked to their project?		